IS ROMANIA CAPABLE OF BECOMING A SPIRITUAL BRIDGE AMONG CONTEMPORARY CULTURES? As the conflicts in the coming world would no longer be interethnic but intercivilizing ones, there is a spiritual bridge between civilizations that needs to be grounded. Romania, a cultural Europe in miniature, could become such a spiritual bridge, if one considers its geographical position, the role played in the past as a cultural messenger between the West and the East and also its spirit of tolerance fully testified over the centuries.
